TENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME: In the Gospel of Mark, Jesus' early ministry conflicts with those who think they know him. He teaches by telling stories to get his listeners to think beyond what they believe they know. Jesus is then forced to look beyond his biological family for advocates and understanding. It is in living and doing the will of God that now creates family and brings about the kingdom of God in our world as we know it. The Genesis narrative in the first reading today recounts the consequences of humankind's disobedience to God. God presented his agreement through Adam. Adam must take responsibility for his actions. Adam fails, he blames both the woman and God! The woman likewise fails and blames the serpent. As the consequences continue, we learn of the world we inhabit. Relationships with one another and with creation have been disordered by these early choices. We look for God's love and mercy as we continue our journey through life. "With our God, there is mercy and the fullness of redemption".

CATHOLIC CHARITIES: Lisa became homeless. At Catholic Charities her hope was restored. She was connected to a social worker who helped her apply for food stamps, return to the workforce, and pursue counseling. Lisa now works full time, has purchased a home and a car. "My hope has been restored," Lisa said. "Thank you for keeping me alive and for giving me a reason to live!" Your gift to Appeal 2024 helps people like Lisa – those who come to Catholic Charities when they feel they have nowhere else to turn. Your gift makes HOPE possible. Give today at www.ccwny.org/donate or text HOPE4WNY to 44321.
