THIRTEENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME: Prophetic work is hard work. All three readings this Sunday touch on this theme. Being a voice of prophecy sometimes means that we will need to say hard things, and we will need to say them in places that do not want us or our message. But if it were easy, it would already be done. Jesus and his disciples go to Nazareth, Jesus' hometown, so that Jesus may preach, teach, and heal the sick. They are amazed at the lack of faith as the townspeople take offense at Jesus returning as a wise teacher. The Gospel reminds us of the importance of going to Jesus in prayerful faith so that we can know his presence in our struggles. To seek wisdom, we must be humble and holy, and we must have respect for our God. We seek him in humility, doing our best to avoid sin. God comforts and rewards those who have suffered in his name. These people are especially blessed by God. How are we living our faith lives each day?

Your efforts are truly life-changing for those who come through our doors – from food assistance to mental health services to education and job skills. We are humbled and grateful for your support of our work at Catholic Charities! Thank you! thank you! thank you! –The 2024 Appeal Team
