ADVENT/CHRISTMAS CONCERT AND LESSONS is planned for Sunday, December 12th at 4:00 PM. It will be a time of preparation for the celebration of Christmas with Scripture lessons and Advent/Christmas music. The St. Cecilia Choir and the Burmese Choir will participate. It will be a wonderful expression of our parish music ministry. Plan today to come and be inspired.

NEW SUNDAY MISSALS ARE NOW AVAILABLE Those who requested them last year are welcome to take a new one. These small missals have been purchased for you so that you can keep them and not leave them in the church. They are for your personal use. The books begin with the new Church year, which begins on the first Sunday of Advent, November 27 & 28th. These handy missals help us to be more prepared to participate in the Sunday Eucharist. You are most welcome to bring them to and from the church.

THANKSGIVING EVE MASS This year we are offering a different approach to the celebration of Thanksgiving. This annual holiday offers us an opportunity to gather as a faith community and give thanks for all the blessings of the past year and to reflect on economic justice for all people. It is our hope that offering an evening mass will be more convenient for those planning family dinners. Our PARISH Thanksgiving Mass is scheduled for THIS Wednesday Evening, November 24th at 7:00 PM. Join us as together we pray and reflect on thankfulness for all God has done for us.

ATTENTION LECTORS! Copies of the "Workbook for Lectors", are now available in the sacristy. These books are very helpful to those who are proclaiming the word. They provide background information, history, and hints on good proclamation. These books begin with the new liturgical year next weekend November 27 & 28.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Theme: Jesus reigns over us in truth.

Family Question: Today we celebrate Christ the King. How much do you let Jesus' truth rule your life? How difficult is it for you to follow Jesus?

First Reading: Daniel 7:13-14

Second Reading: Revelation 1:5-8

Gospel: John 18:33b-37

SOLEMNITY OF JESUS CHRIST THE KING On this day, we celebrate the universal kingship of Jesus Christ. The truth of Jesus is the basis on which we can build to transform the world, so it more closely mirrors God's Kingdom of love and justice here and now. Luke's story of The Good News depicts the king who dies for those he rules. In the crucifixion account, Jesus remains true to his own character and teaching to the end. Luke repeatedly portrays Jesus as the merciful Savior, instructing followers that true leadership consists in compassionate service. Not only do we mark the end of the liturgical year with celebration of Jesus as King of the universe, but we also celebrate the reign of Christ over the hearts of people and nations that strive for making peace and justice real in today's world.

THE CELEBRATION OF BAPTISM was held last weekend within the 11:00 Mass. Our parish welcomes the following children into our parish family. Justin, son of Sa Reh & Lusiah Dah Meh; Julia, daughter of Pray Reh & Kee Meh, Francis, son of Sai Lu & Da Meh, Nikolas, son of Nga Reh & Oo Meh and Maria Ann, daughter of Mark Baetzhold & Allana Krolkowski.

PARISH OFFICE HOURS: The church office is open each week, except for holidays. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 8:00 am until 1:30 pm, Wednesdays 10:00 am until 4:30 pm and on Fridays from 9:00 am until 12:00 Noon. All other times by appointment.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Nabitu Buhendwa who has been named to the first Quarter Honor Roll at Sacred Heart Academy. Well done Nabitu.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT collection will be taken up this weekend November 20 & 21. Life at the poverty line leaves nearly 40 million Americans hanging on to feed their families and to keep a roof over their heads. The CCHD supports self-help projects of people working together to break the cycle of poverty. You can and you have made a difference in the past. Be a part of those who care, give to the CCHD collection. You will find an envelope in your packet.

THE MONTHLY LUNCHEON RETURNS THIS SUNDAY, November 21st in O'Brien Hall following the 11:00 Mass. We look forward to sharing this time with you along with good food and fellowship. Bring the whole family, the food is always good plus you don't need to cook. Children 5 and under are free, all others $1.00.
